Tutoring Experience

I have been tutoring IB and IGCSE History, English, and the Extended Essay for over 3 years, amassing more than 300 hours of teaching experience. My journey as a tutor began during my time at Cambridge, where I provided peer tutoring sessions that were highly praised for their clarity and depth. Since then, I have worked with students from various backgrounds, helping them improve their essay writing skills, understand complex historical concepts, and achieve their desired grades.

In addition to one-on-one tutoring, I have led small group sessions focused on IB History, guiding students through the syllabus with tailored lesson plans that address their individual learning needs. I take pride in fostering a supportive learning environment, where students feel encouraged to ask questions and explore their academic interests. My commitment to their success is reflected in the consistently positive feedback I receive from both students and parents.
